Many Arkansans may be eligible to receive a tax credit that could lower their monthly health insurance premium. Some may receive a tax credit so they will have a very low or even $0 monthly premium. Many Arkansans may be able to get free health insurance through a new program called ARHOME. Many Arkansans may qualify for a Health Advantage health insurance plan with no monthly premium. With ARHOME, you can see any Health Advantage doctor you choose, your preventive care will be covered at no cost to you and you'll receive access to the kind of high-quality healthcare for which Health Advantage has built a reputation. We can help you find out if you qualify for a free health insurance plan from Health Advantage.

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) includes a number of special provisions for American Indians and Alaskan Natives, such as: 1) They can get services from the Indian Health Services, tribal health programs or urban Indian health programs; 2) They may receive services at no cost sharing; and 3) They may have special monthly enrollment periods.

For out-of-network coverage cost sharing increases, and the balance billing (the difference between the provider's bill and the Health Advantage allowed amount) must be paid by the policyholder. Health Advantage qualified health plans have limitations and terms under which the insurance policy may be continued or discontinued. The plans are age-rated, area-rated, and tobacco-rated, meaning premiums are based on the age, residence, and tobacco usage of the covered person.

Services rendered in a hospital outside of the United States of America will be paid at the sole discretion of the Plan.

Subrogation: If benefit payments are made for which a third party may be liable, Health Advantage is entitled to recovery out of payments made by that third party to the full extent of benefits paid.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Your premium will be accepted after coverage has been approved. This outline of coverage provides a brief description of the important features of the Health Advantage qualified health plan insurance policies. The outline is not the policy, and only the actual policy provisions will control. The policy itself sets forth in detail the rights and obligations of both you and your insurance company. It is, therefore, important that you read the policy carefully. Changes to this policy only may be made during the annual open enrollment period or as a result of a special enrollment period.
